We would not suppress the truth. We are willing it should be spoken, come what will. We think it is time for an expression of combined public sentiment to discountenance violence in all its criminal forms. Let the laws be executed with rigor. If they are insufficient, or can be rendered more efficient, it is the Their unanimous voice is that the rally what men he could and make a and then we must enforce them. But meanwhile, it is but just that only the crimes committed in our midst should be laid at our door.

IT is not wholly the corruption, dishomest practices and outright violations of constitutional rights which cause people to abandon the Radical party. All who opposed shavery, were gathered in the folds of Radicalism. However widely of Radicalism. However widely on the followed by great of Radicalism. Two inundred Prussians were captered and brought back with the remedial agents directly to the tomb. In these simple facts we find abundant reason for that progressive disintegration which distinguishes the current fortunes of Radicalism. At this momen the cohesive power of public plunder is almost the only operative force that consolidates only operative force that consolidates liean party. Its dissolution is as for the year 1870, some of which inevitable as was the withdrawal of Chief Justice Chase from partizan association with men with whom he no longer entertained common convictions and sympathies. Radicalism is dying. The fact is enunciated in every recent election and its disease, in the very nature of things, is incurable. It dies simply of inantition.
